From THURSDAY July 10th, to THURSDAY July 17th, 1755.

WILLIAMSBURG, May 5.

To the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Esq; His Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia;

The humble ADDRESS of the COUNCIL.

SIR,

WE his majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the council of Virginia, now met in general assembly, beg leave to return your honour our sincere thanks for your affectionate speech at the opening of this session; and from a just sense of the inestimable blessings of his majesty's reign, and the many repeated marks of his goodness, to assure your honour of our zeal, upon all occasions, to give the strongest and most substantial evidence of our duty and gratitude to his majesty, for every instance of his paternal regard.

The forces which his majesty has been graciously pleased to send over to our assistance, is a fresh instance of his royal care; and from the plan of operations that has been wisely concerted, and the known bravery and experience of the gentleman who is appointed to command, we may reasonably hope to see the peace of America settled upon a foundation, that will not be shaken for ages yet to come.

To drive the French from our borders, to maintain the just rights of the crown, and to our sincere thanks for your speech at the opening of this session.

The many instances we have received of his majesty's paternal and tender concern for the protection and happiness of this colony, do justly demand from us, the strongest testimonies of the most inviolable fidelity to his sacred person and government; and it would argue the highest ingratitude, if we did not acknowledge ourselves truly affected with the benefits which must arise to us from his royal care and munificence, in sending to our assistance, at the expence of the crown of Great-Britain, a body of regular forces, with a large train of artillery, under the command of an able and experienced general.

We beg leave to assure your honour, that we will take the important matters recommended to us by your honour, under our most serious consideration, and that his majesty's interest, and the public good of our country, which are inseparably united, shall govern us in all our resolutions.

To which His Honour was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses,

I Return you my sincere thanks for your address. I am much pleased at your grateful acknowledgments of his majesty's paternal concern for the

The great and important business of the Ohio, we have always considered in a national light, not as Virginians but as Britons: And what difficulties will not a Briton surmount, what dangers will he not encounter, when he is engaged in the glorious cause of a king and country?

As these, sir, are our sentiments, we hope your honour will be persuaded of our ready and chearful concurrence, and of our hearty endeavours to do every thing on our part to promote his majesty's service, the prosperity of this colony, and the welfare of America.

To which his Honour was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Council,

I MOST heartily thank you for your kind and affectionate address; for your just observation of his majesty's goodness to us, and your zeal in the discharge of your duty to him, which I have always found most sincere.

You may be assured it gives me great satisfaction and pleasure, that my conduct meets with so much approbation from you; and for your ready concurrence and assistance to me in the discharge of my duty, I desire to return you my thanks.

Your considering the expedition to the Ohio, in so general a view, and your determination to act as Britons, I doubt not will have its proper effect, in restoring peace, and supporting his majesty's undoubted right to his land on this continent.

To the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Esq; His Majesty's Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia;

The humble ADDRESS of the House of BURGESSES.

SIR,

WE his majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the burgesses of Virginia, now met in general assembly, return your honour tion, and that, with all due dispatch.

BOSTON, May 26.

BY letters in the last ship from London, we have certain advice, that his majesty has been pleased to make a promotion of general officers in his army, among whom his excellency our governor is advanced to the degree of a major-general.

The transports with troops, &c. that sail'd from hence on thursday last, are gone for Annapolis-Royal in Nova-Scotia.

New-York, June 2. Last sunday night a French trader, with a woman (said to be his wife) arrived here from Montreal in Canada, which place he left about a month since: We hear he reports, that two detachments of men, amounting to 700, were, some time before his departure from thence, sent to the Ohio; that another party of 250 were soon to follow; and that their whole force on the Ohio this summer, would not (if we have faith enough to believe a Frenchman) exceed 1200 men, exclusive of Indians; that at Quebec they were busy in building not less than 500 bateaux; and 'twas thought some new expedition is on foot, and would, without hesitation or delay, be speedily executed.

We hear, that the New-Jersey provincial forces, are to set out for Albany the latter end of this week, or the beginning of the next, under the command of col. Peter Schuyler.

And, yesterday a sloop arrived here from Virginia, with arms for our provincial forces, which are now raising in this city, and in the towns adjacent; and we hope we shall soon be able to acquaint the public of their being compleat.

Boston, June 2. By a letter from one of our captives in Canada, we are informed, that a great number of French soldiers have lately march'd from thence for the Ohio.

We have advice from Sheepscut, that on the 23d of last month, Mr. Reis, with two of his sons, and an elderly man and a lad, were fired upon by a number of Indians, as they were at work in a field, who afterwards took and carried them all off prisoners.

We have a report in town, that 15 large ships were lately seen on the banks of Newfoundland, supposed to be French men of war.

Saturday last came advice from North-Yarmouth, in Casco bay, that the Indians had kill'd one Mr. Stowe, on the back of that town, [illegible] and taken another man captive, who had been out a hunting with him.

Annapolis in Maryland, June 3. We hear from almost all parts of the province, that the grass through has already entirely burnt up all the hay and co[illegible]

Philadelphia, June 5. We hear from Will's creek, that the waggons and horses lately collected [illegible] the counties of Lancaster, York, and Cumberland, were safely arrived at the camp, and gave great satisfaction to the general and the other officers, being, for the most part, by far the best of any that have been engaged in the service of the army since their arrival. We likewise hear, that there are fine bottoms for several miles round the camp, in which there is a great deal of good grass and other food for the horses: And that the army in general are very healthy, impatient to enter on action, and wait chiefly for the arrival of the forage purchased in this province.

In a letter from Susquehanna, dated the 31st ult. it is mentioned, that a person who just return'd from the camp, and brought advice, that before he left it, two men came there, who were supposed to be spies, one of them being known to have been among the Virginia forces on the same business before Washington's defeat last summer. They own'd they came from the French fort, and pretended they were very numerous there. One of them attempted to make his escape, and being a good runner, was overtaken only by one man, who brought him back, when he was immediately put in irons, and it was thought would soon be hang'd.

We hear, the general assembly of this province is to meet here on friday the 13th instant, by summons from the governor.

army; and we doubt not will again distinguish themselves in the intended attack upon the French encroachments on our frontiers; his regiment being almost 700 strong, all pick'd men, great part of them already on duty. And 'tis said, that a detachment from that regiment, now encamped on Nutten-Island, will embark for Albany this week.

We hear the New-Jersey forces are embarking.

A letter from Shrewsbury acquaints us, that [illegible] French sailors are taken up there, who landed near Sandy-Hook not many days ago: 'Twas said they belong'd to a French vessel that came for provisions, and that the French sailors were put on shore, and Englishmen clapt on board 'till the vessel should be loaded, when they were to be exchanged again. If this be true, and suffered to pass, to what purpose are our laws to prevent furnishing our enemies with provisions made? And more especially at this juncture, when the afflictive hand of providence seems so hang over us, and threatens us with the desolations of war and famine at the same time.

Philadelphia, June 12. We hear, that near 60 waggons laden with forage for the army, have been dispatched from this city within a few days to Will's creek; the inhabitants of most of the townships in this county having chearfully given considerable bounties to the waggoners, to encourage them to undertake the journey.

We hear also, that a number of waggons laden with forage, are likewise gone from the counties of Lancaster and Berks.

Since our last, an officer and a number of [illegible] arrived here from New-York, on their way to the camp at Will's creek.

As at this time we are on the brink of a very dangerous war, and (the benign influences of the heavens having been long withheld from us) threatened with the want of the necessary means of supporting ourselves and the army which his majesty has graciously pleased to send for our protection; [illegible] vernor has issued his proclamation, bearing [illegible] 6th instant, appointing thursday the 19th [illegible] day of general humiliation, fasting, and prayer.

Williamsburg in Virginia, June 20. [illegible] just arriv'd from his excellency [illegible] we are informed, that the last division of the [illegible] with all the artillery, &c. march'd out of [illegible] beyond last tuesday se'nnight.

[illegible] Tamolus,

[illegible] a former date, to [illegible] had regard to [illegible] and which, we [illegible] have effect in the [illegible] of the late deceased Mr. James Rymer, [illegible] minister of the gospel at Pompon. If you will insert the following account and character of him in your [illegible] Gazette.

POMPON, May 8th 1755. Died the Rev. Mr. JAMES RYMER, Minister of the Gospel in the Presbyterian Congregation at Pompon. Was born in Inverness in Scotland, bred and educated in the University there. Studied for, was licensed, and ordained to the holy Ministry, in the Church of Scotland. Upon a Call from the Presbyterian Congregation at Pompon, was transported thither in the Year [illegible]. Behaved himself in the Office of the Ministry [illegible] of that Character: His Endowments, both [illegible] and acquired, were obvious to any but himself. Was truly agreeable in Conversation; indulged Vice in none, nor encroaching upon the innocent Freedom of any: A kind and loving Husband: [illegible] and confident Friend: An affectionate and [illegible] Father; boldly, mildly reproving Vice, preaching and [illegible] Virtue. Departed, lamented [illegible] that had the Happiness of Acquaintance in Intimacy with him: A Loss to his Friends, his Congregation in particular, the Church in general. This short and [illegible] Character, being the Fruit of real Regard and Respect to his Memory, by one [illegible] to such a Task, will be kindly [illegible] by all his Friends; and for others, [illegible].
